Electives (9 units required). All electives must be advisor-approved as relevant to concentration or career trajectory. If concentration or thesis focus changes, alternate electives may be required. Of the 9 required units, at least 5 units must be (but all 9 can be) graduate level electives offered through the program (see below). No more than 4 units may be from courses taken outside of the MA program – these (up to) 4 units must be upper-division undergraduate or graduate-level, can be from HSU (Anthropology or other courses) or from other universities where credits are transferable, and can be from a course taken prior to the program if it was graduate level, not counted toward any other degree. More than one 679 / 680 can count if the topics/regions differ.

Course	Title	Units	Offered	Term	Grade
ANTH 610	History of Anthropological Theory	1-3
ANTH 618	Qualitative Methods & Analysis	1-3
ANTH 621	International Development	1-3
